Dear Stan,

Heartiest congratulations on your new appointment and confirmation!

We are delighted because we know you'll do a terrific job, because of the honor it brings to you and your family to be serving our country in such a vital post and because you'll not have to abandon a great naval career.

Tom joins in this expression and we both send our love to Pat.
Please also extend our greetings to your mother and dad.

We wish you God-speed
in the days ahead!

Your friend,

Dear Tom,

How nice to hear from you. I do appreciate your very kind words of congratulations and your confidence in me. It is an immense challenge but one I look forward to very much.

I had a great thrill last June when I went back to the old campus and received an honorary Doctorate's Degree. [redacted] didn't look any different than in 1942 but the students were a lot younger looking as well as the professors!

Pat joins in sending our very best to you and Tan. We hope we'll be able to get together in one place or another before long.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
Admiral, U.S. Navy
